Customers are ministers, chiefs of staff, directors-general and their department’s cabinet legislation and liaison officers and senior policy officers.

In addition to the annual departmental client survey, OQPC seeks feedback from instructing agencies on performance in relation to individual drafting projects. Four standard questions are asked and an opportunity is provided for general commentary:

|---|----------|
| How would you rate the quality of the drafting product?   | 98%      |
| How would you rate the level of service in providing advice on alternative ways of achieving policy outcomes?         | 98%      |

Serious and Organised Crime Legislation Amendment Bill 2016

The Serious and Organised Crime Legislation Amendment Bill 2016 was introduced into the Legislative Assembly on 13 September 2016.

The Bill honoured the government's election commitment in relation to dealing with organised crime and created a new organised crime regime drawing on the recommendations of three reviews commissioned by the government:

- the Queensland Organised Crime Commission of Inquiry
- the Taskforce on Organised Crime Legislation
- the statutory review of the Criminal Organisation Act 2009.

The new regime delivers a comprehensive approach to addressing serious and organised crime across all stages of the criminal justice system with key elements including:

- a new consorting offence
- public safety protection orders consisting of public safety orders, restricted premises orders and fortification removal orders
- extension of the banning of 'colours' to all public places, not just licensed venues
- new offences and increased penalties for child exploitation material offences, sophisticated financial crimes and drug trafficking
- improved powers for police to utilise the new organised crime regime and to investigate and gather evidence of crimes associated with child exploitation and financial crimes.

The drafting of the Bill involved significant collaboration between the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel, the Department of Justice and Attorney-General, the Queensland Police Service, Crown Law and the Department of the Premier and Cabinet.
