Hi Matt, has the Labor party supplied any evidence of their claim yet?

Hi all,

Just wondering if the government intended to respond to this request at all?

Best,

Hi there,

Have just heard back from the ECQ, which has said "the QRC has not provided a copy of the draft redistribution or information regarding the proposed boundaries to any external party".

Given that, and the opposition's claims, it would still be good to get that response to the following please:

1) Has a draft copy or information related to the draft boundaries been provided to the government in any capacity? If so, how and why?

Best,

Hi Jordan,

I do not at this stage, but am asking the question because it is a significant claim the Opposition has made in a public parliamentary committee hearing.

Best,

Hi Matt - do you or the Opposition have any evidence to validate these claims?

Subject: Opposition claims about draft redistribution

Hi there,

The Opposition has just claimed in a Parliamentary Crime and Corruption Committee meeting that the government has been "informally" provided "a draft copy or information about the electoral boundaries" from the independent Queensland Redistribution Commission.

Would be great to get a response from the Premier's office ASAP please re the following:

1) Has a draft copy or information related to the draft boundaries been provided to the government in any capacity? If so, how and why?

Best,
